Web Orders

Because we offer free online previews of our programs, all sales are final. If you are unsure of your purchase, then please contact one of our consultants in advance.

Previews

Previews are available for the specific purpose of evaluating a program for rental or purchase and may not be used for training. When you register online you get 15 FREE Previews. Additional previews are available - just call and ask.

DVD Rentals

If offered, rental periods are for five business days. Rentals should be scheduled for specific days. Please place your order early to avoid additional shipping charges. Rental returns are at the customer's expense. We encourage that rentals are returned via a traceable means (like UPS, US Mail, or FedEx).

Online Rentals/Video Streaming

Most of our programs are available for streaming and/or digital download through our web site.
